

Vacancy : Campaigns Officer : 16 hours per week

Lifecraft is a user led self-help charity working to support people's mental health and well being in Cambridge and surrounding area.

The vacancy exists for a Campaigns Officer to focus on our established work with 2 user-led projects, including South Cambs User Forum and 'Making Mental Notes'. The post holder will also support new campaign initiatives and will be required to work one evening per week as a member of core team, in support of Lifecraft evening activities.

Annual Salary: £19,222 pro rata

Method of application: Applications for this vacancy are solely by e-mail to recruitment@lifecraft.org.uk

Closing Date: by 17.30hrs on Monday 12th July 2010